

ADVERTISEMENT

Senior Lead Developer (Employee Network, Inc. – Vestal, NY) Direct the development team in the design of application in health care context; code in all corporate web & data platforms; build e-commerce sites, member portals, survey applications, & SQL data reporting; define scope, build specifications, define budgets, provide advice, & negotiate contracts; collaborate w/ various stakeholders to determine software requirements & then create high-level product specification & design documents; design database tables & structures. Required: Bachelors in Software Architecture, Software Development, Computer Info. Systems & 3 yrs as lead developer for a health care related company/organization OR 3 year post-secondary degree in Software Architecture, Software Development, Computer Info. Systems & 4 yrs as lead developer for a health care related company/organization. Less than 5% domestic travel. 2 yrs exp: leading development teams who build single sign-ons & APIs. 1 yr exp: managing communication & liaising w/ stakeholders regarding product design & requirements, managing software developers in a high-volume workplace environment. Exp. w/: #.net, ASP.Net, ASP .Net MVC, PL-SQL (MS SQL), ASP.Net Web-Services & Web-API, RDLC, Ajax, JSON, JQuery, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, SMTP configuration & email integration, 3rd party API integration (SAML 2.0, REST, etc.), design, install, monitor, maintain, & perform tune production, test/development, & QA database environments while ensuring high levels of data availability, SQL programming & database design, web services/API integrations, Building web portals backend/frontend & integration w/ Mobile Apps. Send resume, referencing “1000” to Kathy Alvarez, 1040 Vestal Parkway East, Vestal NY 13850 or careers@eniweb.com.